A WARD

1. In exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (d) of sub-section (1) of Section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947), the Government of Goa by Order dated 25-02-2008 bearing No. 28/32/2007-LAB/273 referred the following dispute for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal of Goa, Panaji-Goa.

SCHEDULE

"(1) Whether the action of the Management of M/s. Industrial Conservancy Contractor, Opp. J. B. Stores, Mala, Panaji-Goa in terminating the services of Smt. Swarupa Vengurlekar, Clerk, with effect from 14-07-2005 is legal and justified?"

2) If not, to what relief the workperson is entitled?"

2. On receipt of a reference, a case was registered under No. IT/5/08 and registered A/D notice was issued to parties. In pursuance to the said notice, the parties put in their appearance. The Workman/Party I (for short "workman") filed her statement of claim at Exhibit 8. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the workman are that she was employed with the Employer/Party II (for short "Employer"). She stated that the Employer provides cleaning service to various factories, banks, establishment, etc. and having its offices near ferry wharf at Panaji as well as at Mala, Panaji-Goa. She contended that at the time of her joining, she was paid a very low wage. She stated that at the time of her termination, her monthly wages was Rs. 3,000/- and that no provident fund was being deducted and since then she was working with the Employer as Clerk. She stated that somewhere in the year 1996, the Employer changed its name from M/s. Jet Cleaners to M/s. Industrial Conservancy Contractors. She stated that the Employer started deducting her provident fund from the year 1994 and credited the same to the Provident Fund Office till the date of her termination from service. She contended that alongwith her, there was another Clerk working with the Employer by name, Smt. Hilda de Costa. She stated that her services came to be terminated by the Employer orally on 14-07-2005 and that no written termination was issued to her. She stated that she had gone for work as usual on that day, that is on 14-07-2005, however, the Employer told her that her services are no longer required and hence the same is terminated. She contended that she was paid wages for the day for which she worked for the month of June, 2005 and July, 2005 and told her that she need not come for work thereafter. She contended that at the time of termination of her services, she was not given one month's notice, nor paid retrenchment compensation, gratuity, and no seniority list was prepared and no principle of last come, first go was followed. She contended that thus the Employer has violated the mandatory provisions of Sections 25-F and 25-G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947. She stated that aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to terminate her service, she wrote a letter to the Employer demanding reinstatement in service with full back wages and continuity of service as her termination was illegal and unjustified. She contended that as the Employer did not comply with the demand, she approached the office of the Labour Commissioner at Panaji for conciliation. She stated that the Labour Commissioner admitted the dispute in conciliation and made efforts to resolve the dispute amicably, however the conciliation ended in failure since the Employer failed to pay the promised amount of Rs. 80,000/-. He contended that she is unemployed since the date of her termination. She thereafter prayed that she be reinstated in service with full back wages and continuity of service with costs.

3. Thereafter a case was fixed for filing written statement of the Employer. However, the Id. Adv. P. Chawdikar representing the Employer submitted that they are trying to settle the dispute amicably and accordingly on 30-01-2009, both the parties alongwith their respective representatives remained present and filed a joint application dated 30-01-2009 at Exhibit 9 duly signed by them stating that the parties hereto have agreed to settle the dispute for lumpsum payment of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) in full and final settlement of all her dues and that the workman is having no claim reinstatement. The parties stated that in view of the settlement, the disputes does not survive and hence prayed that no dispute award be passed. I have perused the said application dated 30-01-2009 at Exhibit 9 and is of the opinion that the terms of settlement are definitely beneficial to the workmen. Since the dispute between the workman and the Employer has been amicably settled in terms of the Settlement dated 30-01-2009, the dispute does not exist and the reference does not survive.

In the circumstances, I pass the following order:

ORDER

It is hereby held that the reference does not survive as the dispute between the workman, Smt. Swarupa Vengurlekar and the Management of M/s. Industrial Conservancy, Contractors, Opp. J. B. Stores, Mala, Panaji-Goa does not exists in view of the settlement dated 30-01-2009.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.

A WARD

(Passed on this 3rd day of March, 2009)

By order dated 20-6-05, the Government of Goa in exercise of powers conferred under Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 has referred to this Industrial Tribunal the following dispute for adjudication.

"(1) Whether the action of the management of M/s. Bardez Taluka Co-operative House Mortgage Society Limited, Mapusa in terminating the services of their workperson, Smt. Satwashila C. Mhaldar alias Satwashila S. Maulankar, Accounts Clerk, with effect from 01-10-2003 is legal and justified?

(2) If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

2. On receipt of the reference IT/18/05 was registered. Notices were issued to both parties. Party I filed her claim statement at Exb. 4. The Party II filed its written statement at Exb. 6 and the rejoinder of the Party I is at Exb. 8.

3. The Party I has claimed that she was working for the Party II as an Accounts Clerk since 1997. The Party I has stated that she had discharged her duties till September, 2003 and that in October, 2003 the Party II orally informed her not to report for duties on the ground that it had made alternate arrangements for maintaining the accounts on lesser remuneration. The Party I has stated that she was posted on a permanent vacancy and that her termination is illegal. The Party I has therefore sought reinstatement with full back wages.

4. The Party II has denied that the Party I is a workman within the meaning of Section 2(s) and that it is an industry within the meaning of Section 2(j) of the Industrial Disputes Act. The Party II has also stated that the dispute referred is not an industrial dispute within the meaning of Section 2(k) of the Act. On merits, the Party II had stated that the Party I was appointed in the year 1997 on contract basis and that the contract was renewed in the year 1999 and 2000. The Party II has stated that in the year 2000 the Party I remained absent for three months and even though it had suffered monetary loss it did not terminate the services of the Party I and renewed the contract till the year 2001 and it was further renewed in the year 2002 and 2003. The Party II has stated that since August, 2003 the Party I did not report for work without any information or prior permission and as such it had to make alternate arrangements. The Party II therefore terminated the contract of the Party I w.e.f. August, 2003. The Party II has claimed that the Party I is not entitled for any reliefs.

5. Based on the aforesaid pleading, following issues were framed:

1. Whether the Party II is an industry within the meaning of Section 2(j) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
2. Whether the Party I is a workman within the meaning of Section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
3. Whether the dispute between the parties is an Industrial Dispute within the meaning of Section 2(k) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947?
4. Whether the Party II terminated the services of Party I with effect from 1-10-2003?
5. Whether the action of the Party II in terminating the services of the Party I is legal and justified?
6. Whether the Party I is entitled to declaration that the act of the Party II in terminating her services is illegal?

7. Whether the Party I is entitled for reinstatement in service with full back wages and continuity in service and with other consequential benefits?

8. What Award?

6. The matter was posted for evidence. On 26-2-09 both parties appeared before the Tribunal and submitted that they have settled the matter amicably. They have filed consent terms at Exb. 28., which are agreeable to both parties and in my opinion the terms are in the interest of the workman. Hence the consent terms are taken on record and the consent award is passed as under.

ORDER

1. The Party I agrees to accept a sum of Rs. 50,000/- (Rupees Fifty thousand only) in full and final settlement of all her claims and demands of whatsoever nature against the Party II.

2. The Party II have paid the said sum by post dated cheques bearing No. 000929 dated 01-4-09 drawn on Goa State Co-operative Bank, IDC Branch, Mapusa for sum of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty five thousand only) and cheque bearing No. 000930 dated 30-9-09 drawn on Goa State Co-operative Bank, IDC Branch, Mapusa Goa. The Party I shall issue No Claim Certificate.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.
